

KARA a "unique and innovative" folk quartet from Hertfordshire, England, have a distinctive sound combining original material with Russian and British folk for a rich mix of songs and tunes; featuring Daria Kulesh's charismatic vocal delivery, Kate Rouse's haunting hammered dulcimer and harmonies, Ben Honey's driving guitar and Gary Holbrook's soulful accordion. With a growing reputation for spirited and warm live performances, they are championed, in particular, by The Telegraph (Best Folk Albums of 2014 List) and R2 Magazine (Best of the Year 2014).

Stylish... imaginative... a unique brand of folk" (Tim Carroll, FolkWords)

"Not just good, but magical" (John Farndon, The Cauldron)

"They can capture imagination and keep people enthralled with theatrical, lively performances" (Unicorn magazine)

"Sensational. Absolutely marvellous" (Brian Doran, Culture Show on Radio Dacorum)

"Very fine music quite expertly played" (Julian Mount, Watford Folk Club)

"Highly unique, wonderful sound – KARA were superb and just fizzled with such spirit and positive energy" (Nick Stephenson, Mid-Week Music)

"Highly professional, but always fun, they delivered an excellent international set"
(Archie Macaulay, Uxbridge Folk Club)

Hear them live on youtube at.....

www.youtube.com/watch?v=pg7Rcx54evg

