

Liam Robinson

Liam sings traditional folk songs from his native Lincolnshire, accompanying himself on melodeon and concertina. In recent years Liam has taken the music, song and dance of his native county around the world performing in North America and Europe, as well as across the UK.

As well as concert performances Liam is also a highly regarded dance caller, MC and workshop leader, having appeared at many festivals and dance events around the world. Experienced at working with community groups, schools, universities and social clubs, he inspires and entertains people of all ages and abilities.

Dance Calling and MC'ing: Liam has worked with a diverse range of bands on the festival and ceilidh circuit and is also a popular concert MC.

As well as being a highly regarded dance caller, Liam also leads his own dance band which plays for social dance events, parties, Ceilidhs and barn dances. To enquire about a booking, please get in touch.
